An overwhelming number of children , plus Lynne, decided that our new anti-litter mascot should be called Harry the Hedgehog. So over to Harry for a few words:

Thank you so much for my new name. Harry, I love it! I could do with a slogan now to help us all to remember to put litter in the bin. It's the summer fair on Saturday. Let's all make sure we have started by then.

Summer Fair

I hope you are all able to come to our annual summer fair this Saturday 1st July. It starts at 12pm and there will be a barbecue , rides, go-karts, games , inflatables. Better weather is promised this year! I know PTA will be grateful for any donations or offers of help on the day. Otherwise, just turn up, have fun and help raise much needed funds

Hodge Hill Carnival

This year's carnival takes place on Saturday 8th July on St Margaret's Recreation Ground, St Margaret's Road. The theme is Under The Sea. I have a number of coloured umbrellas from the organisers which you can buy from our office for 50p and decorate appropriately and then take part in the parade.

Hillstone Literary Festival

This week we are holding our annual Hill stone Literary Festival . We have visits to the library , a poetry slam and a visiting dance company who will be working on Where the Wild things Are by Maurice Sendak with the children. Plus many more exciting literacy related activities. Staff have put some of their favourite literary quotes up around school. I have chosen two lines from the Rudyard Kipling poem "If." This was voted the nation's favourite poem a couple of years ago and I have always liked the sentiment. It represents the kind of person I would like my children, my grandchildren and my school children to grow up to be.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too:
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream- -and not make dreams your master;
If you can think- -and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same:.
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build' em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss:
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: 'Hold on! '

Parents Evening

Parents Evening will be next Monday from 4.00 to 7.00pm. There will be an exhibition of the year group's work plus a chance to meet your child's new teachers and learn about their curriculum for next year. There will not be a crèche but there will be our usual refreshments on offer. If you want to talk about your child's report you can visit their current teacher .

Early Years

- There are still a few places available in Early Years in September. Please see the office for details.
- We held a lovely Nursery Inspire workshop for parents. "Getting Ready for Reception". I know nursery parents were already impressed by how much their children had learnt in nursery this year. They are really ready for reception class.
- What a super day early years had on the beach at Weston. ....when we finally got there. Problems on the motorway caused huge delays. Ms Newman would like to thank all parents who were very understanding of the situation.
