Hillstone Literary Festival

We had such a lovely week, jam packed with activities for the Literary Festival. I particularly liked the poetry slam where all the children performed a poem with their class. We had such a variety of poems from song lyrics through to old classics and modern funny poems. Here is a copy of one of Mr King's favourite poems.

The Little Boy and The Old Man

Said the little boy, "Sometimes I drop my spoon."

Said the old man, "I do that too."

The little boy whispered, "I wet my pants."

"I do that too," laughed the little old man.

Said the little boy, "I often cry."

The old man nodded, "So do I."

Making Birmingham

Greener and Healthier

Awards

Congratulations to chef and to all of us as we have been shortlisted for the Birmingham City council awards for healthier lifestyles. Chef, 4 children from gardening club, Ms Sheehan and Ms Newman will be attending the award ceremony on our behalf on Tuesday 18th July. Fingers crossed everyone.

Hodge Hill Carnival

This year's carnival takes place on Saturday 8th July on St Margaret's Recreation Ground, St Margaret's Road. The theme is Under The Sea. I have a number of coloured umbrellas from the organisers which you can buy from our office for 50p and decorate appropriately and then take part in the parade. Our choir will be performing at 2.30pm

Clothes for Nepal

Our lovely gardener Lynne, who has made the grounds look so beautiful regularly travels to Nepal to go walking in the Himalayas. The people of Nepal are very poor and particularly following a recent earthquake which left whole communities devastated. Last year, Lynne found lots of school jumpers which had been dumped in the skip as our children had grown out of them. She would love to take a bag of jumpers over to the children of Nepal— we could have our own Hillstone sister school! We will put a bag in the foyer on the last day for any donations.
