9th March 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

You may be aware from my previous message that some teaching unions have declared strike action, which will take place next week.

I'm getting in touch to confirm that although school is closed for some classes - that Nursery class will be open as usual next week. Please send your child in as normal.

As members do not need to inform the school about strike action, this information could change – but we fully intend the class to be open. If the situation changes, I will inform you as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Mr J King
