

Let's Go On A Journey

We will be learning the names of the continents and oceans of the world and learning about world climate zones.

Geography

I know what a continent is and what an ocean is.

I know the four basic compass points.

I can name and locate the world's seven continents.

I can name and locate the world's five oceans.

I can use compass directions when giving instructions.

I can compare another country to the UK.

I can identify daily weather patterns in the UK.

I can identify hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the equator and the North and South Poles.

Computing

I can recognise the uses and features of information technology.

I can identify the uses of information technology in the school.

I can identify information technology beyond school

I can explain how information technology helps us.

I can explain how to use information technology safely.

I recognise that choices are made when using information technology.

Music

I can find and keep a steady beat when listening to music.

I can improvise using three notes, A B and C.

I can listen to music, and respond using musical language.

I can sing with expression, using actions and with good posture.

I can play a glockenspiel using the notes EFGABC

Hillstone Life Skills

Recognise that different rules apply in different situations.

Explain what makes a good school environment.

Recognise that everyone in school has a responsibility to maintain the school environment.

Identify some jobs that people do to keep the local area pleasant.

Recognise some local job roles that help the community.

Recognise similarities and difference between people in the local community.

Explain that differences should be respected.

RE

How can we tell Jesus is special to some people?

Why might some people think Guru Nanak is special?

How do stories show some people are special?

How do we know that Krishna is special to some people?

What can a story tell us about why Muhammad is special to some people?

Why might some people believe Jesus continued to be special when he grew up?