

KS2 Teacher & English Lead

Hillstone Primary School,
Shard End,
Birmingham B34 7PY

Salary: Teachers Main Pay Range to Upper Pay Range, £32,916 - £51,048 p.a. TLR
– Dependant on experience

Contract: Permanent - full time.

Hillstone Primary School is seeking an ambitious KS2 Teacher and English Lead to drive whole-school literacy excellence. The school, rated 'Good' by Ofsted, is a stable, community-centred academy where behaviour is consistently positive, pupils are "lively and friendly," and disadvantaged learners exceed national outcomes.

You will lead English in a school already performing strongly—Phonics results sit in the top 13% nationally, with a 92% pass rate. The role blends high-quality KS2 teaching with strategic leadership to strengthen KS2 reading and writing, mentor colleagues, analyse statutory data, and engage families through literacy events. The school's research-driven ethos and commitment to inclusion provide a strong foundation for impactful leadership.

Hillstone Primary School is a Standalone Academy Trust offering a supportive SLT, excellent CPD with routes into middle leadership, a well-resourced environment, and wellbeing-focused culture—including a two-week October half-term, onsite parking, access to teachers' pension scheme.

Ideal candidates will have QTS, a strong track record of raising attainment (particularly for disadvantaged pupils), and a passion for high-quality children's literature.

We welcome you to come and look around, please contact us to arrange a visit.

Closing date: Thursday 16th April 2026 @12 Noon

Shortlisting: Thursday 16th April 2026

Interviews will be held on Wednesday 29th April 2026. Interviews will be arranged promptly for standout applicants.

Applicant forms and job description/specification are available from our school website: www.hillstone.org.uk